Terry Abeyta Abeyta-Nelson (Yakima, Washington) Abeyta sued Uncle Sam over conditions that prompted a Native American to hang himself in tribal jail.

LAWDRAGON 500

Lawdragon has once again combed the land to level the playing field when you need it most. We asked the nation's best lawyers and their clients whom they'd trust with their own legal matters. The Lawdragon 500 Leading Plaintiffs' Lawyers in America are the result of that quest. To qualify, a lawyer had to chiefly represent individuals, whether in solo or class claims of essentially any nature, toxic tort to aviation, securities class action to employment. We are grateful for plaintiffs' lawyers. They save our lives and are the first person we call when we're in trouble.

Congratulations to the Lawdragon 500 Leading Plaintiffs' Lawyers in America.
